

BECAUSE BAD DESIGN, LADIES, IS A SIN; Legendary Design Duo Colin & Justin to appear at West Coast Women's Show

For Immediate Release:

Abbotsford, B.C. – They're smart, savvy, and fabulously chic – and we don't just mean their designs. The outrageously entertaining Scottish design duo, Colin and Justin, are serving up a double dose of their decorating know-how with two Main Stage presentations at the West Coast Women's Show on Saturday, October 22 at 1:00 pm and 6:00 pm.

Best known for their lavish designs and elaborate transformations on "The Estate", "How Not to Decorate", and "Colin and Justin's Wedding Belles", style gurus, Colin McAllister and Justin Ryan have hit massive success as the faces of Channel Five in the UK, and on HGTV in North America, with broadcasts extending to audiences as far away as Australia, Dubai and China.

Although they primarily reside in Scotland (where both of their mums still live), the couple of 22 years, who recently tied the knot in '08, split their time between Glasgow and London. Since falling in love with Canada, however, they have also invested in a downtown loft in Toronto where they film Canadian favourite, HGTV's "Colin and Justin's Home Heist". This popular program is broadcast across the nation, winning over Canadian viewers with its exquisite, contemporary meets functional interior designs — not to mention its cheeky catchphrase: "Because Bad Design, Canada, is a sin."

Lucky for us, while at WCWS, Colin and Justin will help Lower Mainland women with their decorating queries and wedding day plans – and no doubt banish the notion that the only stylish item a West Coast woman owns is her rain boots.

Ladies, here is your chance to see these fellows up close and personal as they take the stage TWICE during your ladies night, October 22nd at the West Coast Women's Show and host the Charity Auction. There couldn't be a better addition to your Girls Night Out rundown than a run-in with two of television's most stylish designers – so don't forget to pencil them in! Colin and Justin will be speaking at 1:00 pm and then again at 6:00 pm just before the charity auction. If you want a chance to meet Colin and Justin or get autographs signed, they will be available after the 1:00 pm presentation.

With more than 450 booths and displays, one-of-a-kind features and celebrity presentations, the West Coast Women's Show is the perfect destination for a girl's day/night out, networking, shopping and so much more! For more information visit www.westcoastwomen.net.
